A Greeting from the President

One of the chores performed faithfully and accurately each year by the office of the Secretary of the Church, the Rev. W. Sherman Kerschner, D.D., is the publication of the Year Book.

Back of the volume you now hold in your hands lies the day-to-day work of tabulating statistics, noting changes of address on the part of our ministers, listing the names of those who have died during the year and securing photos of them and the brief biographical data given with each name, multitudinous correspondence with officers of our 34 synods in order to obtain complete and correct information, maintenance of contact with statistical officers of other denominations to share experience and methods with them, preparation of the printer's copy and then seeing the job through to the end of its publication—all this has gone into the making of the Year Book of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Its almost 300 pages constitute one of the major means by which our pastors and lay people can be intelligent as to our denominational structure, official personnel, financial and membership statistics, and our institutional life.

How does the congregation to which you belong compare with other congregations in its giving, its membership growth, its church school enrollment, and the like? A study of the Statistical Tables found beginning near the middle of the volume will tell you.

Where are the other churches in your synod located? The Rosters of the Synods will give you this information, together with a list of the officers of each synod.

If you are planning a trip and want to know where Evangelical and Reformed churches will be found in the States through which you will be traveling, consult the Location of Churches section of the Year Book. It will list not only the name of the town or city but also give you the street location, or in the case of rural churches indicate near what town they will be found.

How much territory does each of our 34 synods cover? Find the page where Maps of the Synods are printed. There is a full-page map of the United States, and another full-page map of Pennsylvania. The latter is provided because nine of our 34 synods and parts of two others, West New York and Magyar, are found in this State; and in it are 32 per cent of our approximately 2,750 congregations and 31 per cent of our approximately 770,000 communicant members.

You will learn more from the Year Book's maps and tables about the geographical distribution of our denomination. For example, 55 per cent of all our congregations and 56 per cent of all our communicant members are to be found east of the Indiana State line in the seventeen eastern synods including Southern. On the other hand, the four synods of the West and Southwest—California, Pacific-Northwest, Rocky Mountain, and Texas—include in that vast territory less than five per cent of our churches and less than four per cent of our communicant membership.

This contrast in degree of concentration of our membership will suggest two things:—the measure of concern and of interest and prayer with which our churches in the east and middle west should be upholding our brethren in the west and southwest, and the peculiar problems and difficulties the latter face in carrying forward their witness to Christ as part of our fellowship.

The foregoing are only a few examples of the way in which the Year Book, if it is read and studied with alert mind and devout imagination, can become not only a major source of information but of inspiration concerning our evangelistic and missionary responsibilities and the nature of our denominational fellowship. To such ends as these the Year Book of 1955 is commended for careful reading.

Dr. Wagner

Ordinations

ORDINATION is the solemn rite by which the Church bestows upon candidates, who must be at least twenty-one years of age, the full rights and privileges of Christian ministers. The following record included all ordinations that were reported to the Secretary of the Church up to September 3, 1954.

Ministers are reminded that the dates appearing in connection with their names in the Register of Ministers of the Year Book indicate the year of ORDINATION and not the year of GRADUATION from a seminary. In a number of instances these years are not identical.

The appended list of seventy-seven names seems at first glance to compare rather unfavorably with the list of one hundred and four recorded in the 1954 Year Book until one is reminded of the fact that the latter list includes nineteen names that should have been included in the Year Book of the previous year, but which were not reported as promptly as they should have been. The Committees on Ordination are reminded of the great importance of providing themselves with the necessary forms in good time and of submitting their reports as promptly as possible.

"More than 59 years of Christian Welfare to Children and Aged"

BENSENVILLE HOME SOCIETY

A continuing program of service to children within the institution and in foster homes. An expanding program to care for the aged.

A beautiful new home for the aged on the Bensenville campus was dedicated in September, 1954. Our homelike nursing care unit in Freeport is in operation. Our aim is to locate units in convenient areas so that our residents can enjoy continuing fellowship with old friends and neighbors. The loyalty and support of our friends is necessary to make present projects successful and future units a reality.

Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts will enrich the lives of needy older people and children . . . by supporting such an agency as the Bensenville Home Society, you will be making a great contribution to Christian welfare. Memorials to departed loved ones will help us immeasurably in this great undertaking at Bensenville.

THE REV. A. J. MUNSTERMAN, Superintendent

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

Corporate Titles of the Boards and Institutions

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

HEREWITH are given the corporate or charter names, together with the headquarters addresses, of the Boards and institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This information has been secured direct from the executives of these agencies by Dr. John W. Mueller, Counselor of the Church, and the editor of the Year Book in response to numerous requests from persons who had need of it in connection with writing wills or drawing up other legal papers.

In every instance the words "of the Evangelical and Reformed Church" should be added to the title. In cases where Boards or institutions are familiarly known by a popular name instead of by the corporate title this popular name is shown in parentheses. The addresses given are those of the executive offices of the Boards and institutions listed.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

From September 1, 1953, to September 8, 1954

WE reverently present brief obituaries and likenesses of the fifty-five ministers who passed away during the period indicated above. The oldest was 96 and the youngest 29. Eleven were pastors or otherwise active in the ministry at the time of their death, while forty-four were either retired or inactive.

The statistics of recent years show that on the average one minister has died every eight days. The ranks should be steadily recruited throughout the Church so that others may follow in their train. "O, may Thy soldiers faithful, true and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old!"

The Commissioned Workers

THE Administrative Committee at its meeting on June 15, 1954 took the following action:—"The Status of Commissioned Workers was referred to the Theological Committee and the Commission on Church and Ministry for consideration preliminary to future action by the Committee on Constitutional Matters and the General Council."

Because of the incomplete and otherwise unreliable lists of personnel that are available and because of certain other conditions it was deemed advisable simply to present an alphabetical list of those workers who it seems at one time or another were set apart as Commissioned Workers. The editor of the YEAR BOOK will be happy to place at the disposal of the above named groups any data or information that is available and that might serve some purpose in their study.

Location of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the detailed location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

1953 STATISTICS OF CONGREGATIONS

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no statistical report for 1953, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

These congregational statistics went to press early in July. Therefore, some of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents. A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in an area unit with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, under 500, and probably in the open country.

An Acknowledgment

The Evangelical and Reformed Church has for many years enjoyed the cooperation and services of Mr. A. J. Arbogast, 3034 W. Lehigh Ave., Philadelphia, Pa., in connection with the business operations of the YEAR BOOK. Encouraged as he was in the early days by Rev. Albert S. Bromer, who for many years was associated with the publication interests of the Reformed Church in the Schaff Building, as far back as 1917 he was prevailed upon to solicit the commercial advertisements for the annual denominational publication then known as the YEAR BOOK. From the very beginning he proved himself a man of keen business acumen and ability, and throughout all the intervening years he has served the Church faithfully and conscientiously as the solicitor of the commercial advertisements. This 1955 edition is the thirty-ninth number which bears the marks of his business ability and consecration.

Soon after assuming this responsibility in 1917 it occurred to him that what had been done with the Reformed Church YEAR BOOK could also be done for other denominations, with the result that the commercial advertisements which he secured for the Reformed annual were also placed at the disposal of the editors of other denominations. In this he was so uniformly successful that at the peak of his business operations he was providing the advertisements for a total of twelve YEAR BOOKS, the largest combined circulation in any one year being 350,000 copies.

Throughout the thirty-nine years during which Mr. Arbogast has served us as our solicitor of advertisements he always brought to his task a true Christian spirit. He has always been upright and honest in all his dealings, always more eager that the welfare of the denominations he represented be guarded and preserved than was his own.

Several years ago he reached the retirement age in the employ of the Lutheran Publication House in whose service he had been for many years. This House is also happy to bear record to his long term of faithful and conscientious service. May the high esteem in which he is held by all his associates remain with him a blessed memory as he moves toward life's sunset, until he hears the welcome plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

—THE EDITOR

A NAME TO REMEMBER

Some day—perhaps this year, perhaps next—your church will need a new organ. That will be the time to recall the name of Möller—to remember the thrilling beauty that true pipe organ music offers. Möller organs are built by craftsmen unexcelled in their field—built from finest materials obtainable. Today, even a church with limited means need not sacrifice the superb music produced by pipes: Möller's Artiste meets the price of substitute instruments, yet offers true pipe organ music. Before you purchase any organ, see and hear a Möller!

Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company

BURLINGTON, IOWA

The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company is a part of the great American institution of mutual insurance and at the same time it may be said that it is a part of the Evangelical and Reformed Church since it has confined its business within the boundaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church since its organization in 1889.

Mutual insurance has stood the test for over 200 years. The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company has also stood the test and has been growing steadily. It is a strong company. The financial statement reveals that the company has $4.00 in assets for every $1.00 in liabilities, which reflects a surplus position that is exceedingly strong.

The Board of Directors is composed of Evangelical and Reformed laymen who are ever on the alert to furnish Protection, Service, Safety, and Savings for its policyholders.

PROTECTION. The company offers protection against Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage. Extended Coverage includes Tornado, Cyclone, Windstorm, Hail, plus Explosion, Smoke from faulty operations of heating or cooking units connected with a chimney, Aircraft and Vehicles. To provide added protection all funds over and above our retentions are reinsured with good reliable reinsurance companies.

SAFETY. By writing the insurance within the boundaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church the risks are so widely scattered that it is almost an impossibility to have a catastrophe loss, which has been proven many times during the years.

SERVICE. By giving our insureds the best for their money at a reasonable cost and mailing out loss drafts on the day the Proof of Loss arrives at the Home Office, has been and will be our ambition in the future.

SAVINGS. Our policyholders have saved thousands of dollars over the years and will continue to do so in the future.
